I enjoyed this story. Books by David Hosp. However, I would be interested to read more by this author.

However, I didn't really get engaged with the characters. I found myself guessing. I realized it was "on purpose" when I was reading about his hero, Finn, editing out redundancies in his briefs. Most well-known facts surrounding this art theft were integrated seamlessly into this story, which I found fascinating. Shopbop Designer Fashion Brands.

What is missing, is the showdown courtroom drama that peer-association seemed to do. I did finish this book but was certainly not impressed by it. He goes to see this man in jail, not sure at all that he wants to take him on as a client.
