This is exactly why I wanted to get the El Chepe train! We've been on the trains since From Muizenberg the line runs south-west, immediately beside the coast, with only a thin strip of rocks and beach separating the tracks from the sea. The rail operator was last month forced to amend its timetable resulting in at least 30 trips being cancelled indefinitely. Or strike down a different path to see the famous rippling waves of the Seven Sisters cliffs. You may also like. From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia.
