The book contains again the unique blends of elemental magic that make the fights between creatures more interesting. What an amazing series this is turning out to be!

I really have nothing to complain about in this book other than I thought that it was better than other books in this series. Christopher Shields lives in Northwest Arkansas with his family and three dogs. Chris also enjoys spending time with his circle of close friends, playing his sax, and indulging his life-long passion for the Arkansas Razorbacks.

As a casual visitor to the genre I was in awe of the imagination and broad spectrum of the series. The Steward is the first book in the exciting and magical four part series: Teresa Garcia
