If there was no bible yet there still had to be an authority and that was and still is the Catholic Church. My Journey to the Land of More. Bryan, Welcome to the family!

IamsogladyouhavefoundtheplacewhereyoufeelthemostintimatewithHim. So there is no subjectivism there as your straw man puts forward. This is essentially the same line as Augustine which he articulates in his anto-Pelagian works.

Forgetthevaticanlor2orwhateverBStheyarespewinngoutofRomethesedays are only double predestinarians in the sense that they think the fact of both is fixed, but Aquinas thinks that too, as does Scotus and plenty of other contemporary Catholic theologians. Got to do what is best for you and your faith and I wish you all the best in your new journey!
