The knowledge of God is precious and worth selling all that we have to obtain it. Please read Philippians 3: In Philippians chapter three, Paul is not saying that he has reached sinless perfection or the epitome of spirituality that God intends for the believer when he sees his Savior face-to-face.

For his sake I have thrown everything away; I consider it all as mere garbage, and cannot obtain it through our own righteousness but through the Righteousness of Christ which will cleanse us and furnish us with the power necessary to know Him. Pain is a blessing and brokenness a prerequisite in Christianity simply because God's power cannot be manifested except in our weakness that we may fully understand that it is not our might nor power.
