Shareyourthoughtswithothercustomers. It shows both sides of the coin, the vehemence and the melancholy, palpating through this work. This file is part of the Gaylord Library Mirroring Project. Cuba I think it is understood that no score could be notated enough to allow the pianist to interpret exactly the Albeniz Spanish flavor but I believe there are sufficient notations; the Spanish feel has to come from listening and feeling this music and I would recommend playing the CD by Guillermo Gonzalez - http:
