You can read more book reviews or buy Start It Up: Sadly it does not really teach HOW should things be done to startup a business which I believe most of the buyers would need and expect from the book. Albert Wall rated it really liked it May 04, JimRowerratedititwasamazingJul01, Its a motivational book for beginners to have a rough idea about what they might face if they choose this path. There are no discussion topics on this book. The book begins by listing Johnson's business venture failures, almost as simple as a bullet point list, giving the reader the impression that any failure is just another notch on the belt.
