Make sure to focus on the concepts that give you the most trouble, like preterite vs. Ella dio el vestido a Carla. There are only six true irregulars in the present subjunctive; be familiar with them. Ahora Julia tiene el libro. But the simple future could appear in sources on the AP exam, so you should be able to recognize it quickly. Imperfect Tense The imperfect is another form of the past tense, used for habitual actions and descriptions in the past. Here are some common examples that you should be able to recognize for the exam. These are most likely to appear on the interpersonal writing and speaking portions of the exam – that is, the email reply and the conversation. The tricky part comes in with the irregulars there are quite a few.
