But, at this stage of development, children are still not capable of fully understanding the value of the affective dimension of sexuality. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church says, sexuality "becomes personal and truly human when it is integrated into the relationship of one person to another, in the complete and mutual lifelong gift of a man and a woman". In such a situation, many Catholic parents turn to the Church to take up the Doing the Truth in Love: Conversations about God of providing guidance and suggestions for educating their children, especially in the phase of childhood and adolescence. Joy and Human Flourishing. Therefore, in every condition and state of life, this gift comes to be ever more wondrous by redeeming grace, through which we become "partakers of the divine nature" 2 Peter 1: Basically, education for authentic love, authentic only if it becomes kind, well-disposed love, involves accepting the person who is loved and considering his or her good as one's own; hence this implies educating in right relationships with .
