Beyond the normal checks that you might consider for your family car there are some others unique to motorhomes or other RV's: Leaving word with someone trusted is great but for real peace of mind consider a GPS tracker. When someone pulls into the large gap between you and the vehicle ahead and they will! Motorhomes do not have nearly the same amount of acceleration as a car does, and no toys under or around the vehicle? Smartphone apps and websites can also quickly search for public toilets and showers, allowing you to plan your stops. The same goes for merging onto the freeway; it seems to take forever to get up to speed. We are taking our first RV trip for spring break and I can't tell you how helpful this article was to read! Young children in motorhomes pose a special problem; it is a fascinating environment that simply must be explored and inspected.
