This is a cute story. Shows God still cares for His children and we can trust him in. Marge, the main character, moves from Baltimore to Nebraska.

The only way it could have been even better was if Kelly would of had Clara and Sa

A very sweet story of a young woman who wanted to go to Oregon to start a new life but instead was caught up in a plan to find a bride for her employers don. I thought the story of the mix-up with the names and marriage proposal a cute premise for The Bride Blunder but felt it lacked in focusing in on the relationship between Marge and Gavin. I liked the characters, there was humor throughout, and The Bride Blunder (Prairie Promises) writing flowed .

But while this heroine is all that, she's also got the tropethat I really don't loved Gavin's grandmother to bits! This was a cute idea but was not executed .
