Character growth and development could have been better. This book is about Seht and Aubrey who we get more info on in book 1. Hawke is an amazing writer with the capability to keep you in the world solidly.

However, after finishing "Lost Star," I wish I'd read it. You do not need to have read the previous books to understand and enjoy this one. This was mainly because the story is told only from Aubrey's point of view, but I would have liked at least some reasons as to why Seht acted like he did.

Noone--I have a knack for this stuff. This is basically a pre-quel to book 1, "Victorius Star", covering Seht and Ravnos's backstory. No trivia or quizzes .
