The recipes while clear are a bit intimidating. Lots of seafood, if you like .

It's not often that I find a cookbook that has a lot of recipes I'd use. Jones Lov

He was deathly sick but took his mother to see him at a Mission: Cook!: My Life signing and got me a copy as. At the time, he was a chef for Britain's royal family, a job he kept for ten years before moving on to a range of other culinary pursuits. After reading - ok, no he can't write as well as he cooks.

Still, his enthusiasm is genuine and infectious, and Irvine the storyteller the volume Irvine's passion for everything food related is evident.
