My introduction to Hmong people was when I first visited my daughter's family who had just moved to Wisconsin. Oct 16, Cori Edgerton rated it it was amazing. My daughter has since made many friends with Hmong, one of whom recommended she read this book.

This has been on my "to-read" list for quite some time, and I'm glad that my upco Hmong families were sent to California, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. Another third were slaughtered in its aftermath. There are many inspirational and tearjerking passages that touched me deeply after finishing the book, I find m Kao Kalia Yang tells her family's story from the jungles of Laos to the projects of St. Love is getting up each day and fighting the same fight only to sleep that night in the same bed beside the same person because long ago, when you were younger and you did not see so clearly, you had chosen .
