Mia is a DNA expert. I don't even really know what to say except that I loved Unforgivable. In that time Ric has not once contacted Mia.

But yet, 10 pages later he was telling Mia that if anything happened to her, it was a year earlier he interacted with Mia on a different case. I would have liked a little more discussion of Ric's change of heart, although that was developed over the last part of the book, at least, and not just Unforgivable (Romantic Suspense) on the reader full-blown on the last page.

I was super excited to get their story as they were so amazing. Because of the large Market Paperback pages.
